Dear Community Leader:

In celebration of the "National Day of the American Cowboy," Utah Cowboys and Cowgirls ("the cowboy") representing all 29 Counties in the State of Utah will be honored on Saturday, July 23, 2022, during the Ogden Pioneer Days Rodeo. This day is designed to honor ranchers, working cowboys, rodeo athletes, Western musicians and artists, cowboy poets and others who contribute to the Western culture in Utah.

Activities include a pre-rodeo VIP reception, print and video presentation during the rodeo spotlighting each cowboy/cowgirl, special gifts and recognition from the Ogden Pioneer Days Foundation, and from national, state and local elected officials.

As a respected community leader, we invite you to nominate a deserving cowboy from within your County to receive this prestigious honor. Your nominee' should be someone whose life and work best represents the western heritage lifestyle and the preservation of Utah's western and cowboy culture for future generations.

Nominations are due March 1, 2022.
Please send your nomination to:
Ogden Pioneer Days Foundation
