Correspondence: Commissioner Lytle didn't have anything and Brian said there was a copy of the BOR's Ramp Survey and a BLM Compliance letter included in the packet. The BLM letter could not be found so Brian read the gist of the letter. The Ramp Survey was briefly reviewed. We are supposed to get some snow this week, so hopefully that will help.

Calendar Review: We have elected officials meeting on the calendar for this afternoon, but Kent has Court this afternoon. The meeting was postponed until December. Commissioner Asay asked if there were more tickets being written since the speed limit was changed and Kent said that he had not seen an increase in speeding tickets, but he knows they've been giving out warnings. We have been dealing with some high profile drug cases. The Sheriff said he will be meeting with the School District to try and set up some future trainings.

Commissioner Tippets said next week's Commission Meeting is canceled, but the rest of the week is pretty busy. The following week is the UAC Conference. Commissioner Lytle will be gone November 28th through the 2nd of December. Thanksgiving is on the 24th and has there been any conversation regarding a turkey or ham. Commissioner Tippets thought Turkey might be hard to get this year. Keri said that hams have been ordered and will be here the week before Thanksgiving. Commissioner Asay has UBAOG meetings next week and Commissioner Lytle has annual CIB meeting in Moab next week.

POLICY AND LEGISLATION:

Discussion And Consideration Of Recertifying The Daggett County Justice Court: Commissioner Tippets thought this was a good idea and it was determined to put it on the agenda for
