Good Afternoon,

I wanted to send you the email that we would be sending out to the community leaders in your area and the link to the assessment that they would receive. Let me know your thoughts.

As a leader and important member of our community, we ask you to please save the date for a community conversation on April 25th at 6 pm either in person or this meeting could also be held virtually.

We will use this time to reconnect with you and other partners about the health issues that matter most in our community, and strategies to improve the quality of life for the people we serve. This meeting will inform our community health assessment and implementation plans.

In preparation for this meeting, you will receive a survey from Stephanie Stokes, Strategic Research at Intermountain Healthcare. We are working collaboratively with her and other partners throughout the state to understand health needs. Please take the time to complete it, as your thoughts and knowledge are essential to this work.
