PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Clark has practiced law since 1981. He began his career as a law clerk to Honorable H. Vearle Payne, Senior Judge, U. S. District Court for the District of New Mexico. Since 1981, Clark has worked in a wide range of settings, including the Utah Attorney General's office, construction and surety law boutique firms, and one of Utah's largest law firms. Clark has been a shareholder at Fetzer Simonsen Booth & Jenkins since 2003. Clark is an accomplished mediator and arbitrator. He is on the Roster of Neutrals of the American Arbitration Association and the roster of mediators of the Utah State Courts.

EDUCATION

Clark is a graduate of Brigham Young University and the University of Utah College of Law. Clark received mediation training through the Program of Instruction for Lawyers at Harvard Law School's Program on Negotiation and the Utah Dispute Resolution Basic Mediation Training.

PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

Clark has authored and edited state legislation. He has presented seminars on a variety of construction law topics and public contract and procurement regulation. The most recent seminar Clark taught was "Construction Law: Planning, Project Management and Payment Rights" in October 2014.

BAR LEADERSHIP AND AFFILIATIONS

Clark is a member and past chairman of the Construction Law Section of the Utah State Bar. He is a member of the Forum on Construction Law and the Fidelity and Surety Law Committee in the Tort Trial & Insurance Practice Section of the American Bar Association.
