

School Counseling Program Model Feedback
December 12, 2023

2022-2023 School Year

Feedback from School Counseling Advisory Council

Feedback from LEA School Counseling Leadership

Summer 2023

Feedback from the field of current professional school counselors

25 School Counselors

Representation from large, small, and rural LEAs, including charter schools

Elementary and secondary schools

5-30 years of experience

Average of 10 years of experience

September 2023

Feedback on Draft #1 from Advisory and LEA Leadership

November-December 2023

Public Comment (Public Comment Draft #1)

317 responses on the Qualtrics Survey

Duration: 2- 759,010 seconds

Average: 22,088 seconds (about 6 hours)

Stakeholder Identification:

70 K-12 School Counselors

14 Parent of K-12 student

7 K-12 School Administrator

5 K-12 Educator (not a school counselor)

8 Other

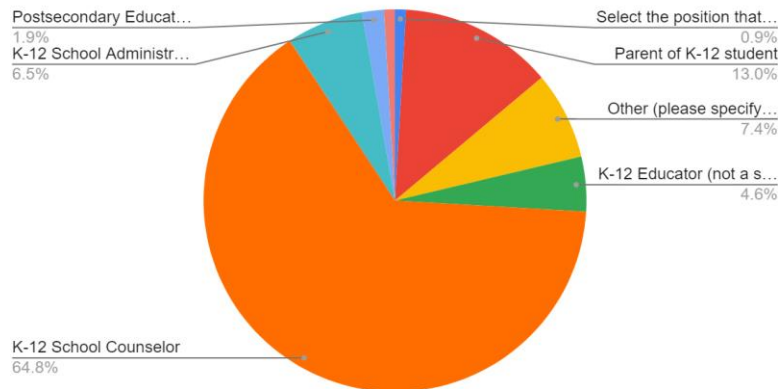

Date: 12/12/2023

Version: Draft 1

Contact Person and Email: Michelle Glaittli michelle.glaittli@schools.utah.gov

This draft is for consideration during the January 12, 2024, Committee meeting.

Count of Select the position that best describes you as a stakeholder: - Selected Choice

Public Comment Summary

- Multiple comments unrelated to the content of the Utah Model
 - Funding needed for school counseling
 - The need for state to fund elementary school counselors
- Grammar and technical change suggestions
- Additional definitions to the glossary
- Mindsets and Competencies, Portrait of a Graduate, and LEA Option
 - Comments in favor of both
 - Comments on adding just one and not having options
- Multiple comments supporting the draft, without edits
- Comments to include more references to ASCA, and the ASCA Model

Date: 12/12/2023

Version: Draft 1

Contact Person and Email: Michelle Glaittli michelle.glaittli@schools.utah.gov

This draft is for consideration during the January 12, 2024, Committee meeting.