Procurement Policy Created

As of November 2023

FARMINGTON CITY PROCUREMENT POLICY

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Purchasing Agent Designated. The City Manager or appointed designee is hereby appointed and designated as the Farmington City purchasing agent. The Purchasing Agent may from time to time appoint another person to undertake all or some of the duties of the Purchasing Agent set forth herein or appointed to them.
2. Authority to Enter into and Execute Contracts. All contracts are to follow the approval thresholds as outlined in "Authorization Requirements for Purchases" in this policy. All contracts must be reviewed by the City Attorney prior to execution and approved 'as to form'. All contracts in violation of this provision are considered void and may result in the personal obligation and liability of persons at fault for such violations.
3. Competitive Procurement. Unless exempted by this policy, all purchases and contracts shall be awarded on a competitive basis, as required by this

Viking (Buffalo Ranch) resolution

Office, Entry No. 1893293, Book 3341, Page 1691 (the “Conservation Easement”) is hereby TERMINATED and EXTINGUISHED.

3. The Farmington Ranches Development Agreement, recorded on November 14, 2000 in the Davis County Recorder’s Office as Entry # 1624056, Book 2713, Page 1098, and all subsequent amendments thereto (together with subsequent amendments, the “Development Agreement”), are hereby TERMINATED and EXTINGUISHED with respect to Viking’s Property in Farmington, Utah.

4. The Court hereby authorizes Viking to record this Order with the Davis County Recorder’s Office and orders that the Conservation Easement and the Development Agreement are terminated. Neither the Conservation Easement nor the Development Agreement shall have any legal or equitable effect as to Viking’s property.

31% property tax increase

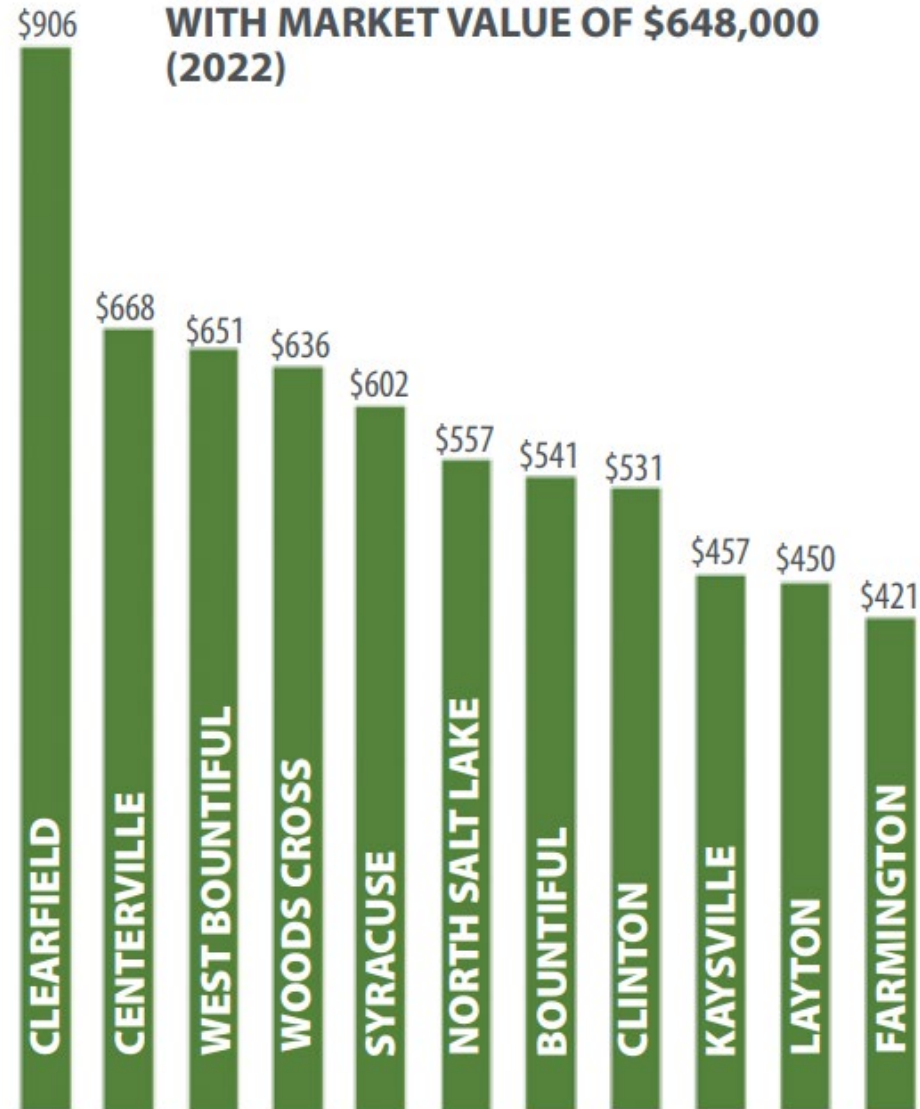

COMMITMENT TO PUBLIC SAFETY

If passed, every penny collected via this tax increase will go toward public safety operations in Farmington with the intention of keeping residents, families, and property safe.

All residents are invited to attend a Truth in Taxation Hearing on August 15, 2023, at 7:00 pm. Please come with your thoughts and concerns, and feel free to share them with your elected municipal representatives.

Please reach out to the Farmington City Manager, Brigham Mellor, with any questions (see directory on page 3).
