Public Comments:

Comments will be limited to three minutes for individuals (approximately 300 words for emails) and to five minutes for a spokesperson, recognized as representing a group in attendance. Please begin by stating your name and city of residence. Those wishing to have their comments read into the record may send an email by 5:00 p.m. the day prior to the meeting date to kfong@murray.utah.gov. Other than this Public Comment section of the meeting or a required public hearing, members of the public may observe but will not be allowed to participate (speak) in the meeting.

At the beginning of the meeting, if public is present, the Chair could say something like this:

We welcome the public in attendance. This Library Board meeting is a business meeting where we discuss the business of the library. Consequently, other than the public comment section (or a required public hearing), members of the public may observe the meeting but may not participate (speak) in the meeting.

And just prior to calling for public comment, the Chair may state:

The public comment portion of the meeting shall be limited to the public addressing the Library Board. Individual members of the public shall be limited to three (3) minutes time. A spokesperson representing a group in attendance shall be limited to no more than five (5) minutes time. Board members will not interrupt, argue with, or otherwise interfere with comments made by the public. The Board may ask clarifying questions of the member of the public making a comment, but state law prohibits the Board from acting on items that do not appear on the agenda.
