County Day on the Hill Registration Now Open

DECEMBER 21, 2017 BY UAC

It's still about seven weeks away, but UAC is gearing up for County Officials Day on the Hill, February 8, 2018.

This year we will NOT be holding the event in connection with the Governor's Office of Economic Development as we have the past two years. We'll be flying solo but feel this will give us more opportunity to connect with legislators on urban and rural issues that cover the spectrum of activities counties are engaged in.

Though we are still finalizing the exact agenda, we expect the meeting will begin at about 9:30 or 10 am in the Auditorium of the State Office Building, directly north of the Capitol. We'll be there the entire time, eating lunch with legislators at noon and adjourning at 1 pm.

Historically, this has been a wonderful opportunity to discuss issues, mingle with legislators, and show them why counties matter. Please make arrangements to attend if at all possible – your presence and voice are invaluable to the legislative process.

David Bradley, Executive Director of the National Community Action Foundation, will present a history of the war on poverty and community action programs. For more than 30 years, David Bradley has been one of Washington's leading advocates on behalf of low-income programs. In 1981, David helped found the National Community Action Foundation (NCAF). As a private nonprofit organization funded solely by non-governmental contributions, NCAF represents funding and policy interests of the nation's 1000 community action agencies before Congress and the Executive Branch
