Ty Tippetts

Ty will not be at the meeting but he provided this update:

We are still most concerned about the issues of an Operating Budget gap and the ownership/property management question. I met with an organization named Volunteers of America (VOA), which is has a strong national reputation for developing projects like the one we're proposing. There is some interest in partnering with R&RC and CCCHI by the VOA. We are now pulling together another meeting where we hope to include the VA, R&RC, CCCHI and VOA to see if all parties can consummate their interests. This meeting will be scheduled around October 15th. More information will be available after this meeting occurs.
