

Business Disaster Preparedness:

What does it mean to have a prepared business?
What is required?

Participate at the 2016 Utah Prepare Expo on August 27th to find your answers. Register at this link. Also visit the website at <http://www.utah.gov/beready/prepare-conference/>

Recognizing 8 Signs of Terrorism

- Surveillance
 - Demonstrating an unusual interest in facilities to determine how well the target is protected and what security measures are in place.
- Information Gathering
 - Questioning individuals at a level beyond mere curiosity.
- Testing Security
 - This may be an attempt at measuring reaction times to security breaches or assess strengths and weaknesses.
- Funding
 - The raising of money to finance illicit and potential terrorist operations.
- Acquiring Supplies
 - The acquisition of unusual amounts of precursor materials.
- Impersonation
 - Using false documents, uniforms, badges, access passes or keys to gain access to protected facilities.
- Rehearsal
 - Terrorists will often rehearse their plans several times over, to ensure successful deployment.
- Deployment
 - Terrorists are arranging their assets, getting into position or are in the midst of conducting their operation.

Report suspicious behavior to your local law enforcement agency or email sars@utah.gov

Schedule this free training for your business
Contact: Logan Sisam lsisam@utah.gov 385-222-5350

Also register for the 8 Signs of terrorism training to come to your business by sending an email to lsisam@utah.gov and going to <http://www.utah.gov/beready/business/documents/8-signs-of-terrorism.pdf>

Does Your Business Have a Plan?

At no cost, Be Ready Business can come to your business and help you develop and exercise your plans. In addition Be Ready Business has access to subject matter experts that can come and provide additional knowledge tailored to meet your business's specific needs.

You can reach us at lsisam@utah.gov or <http://www.utah.gov/beready/business/>