

Washington County Private Sector Preparedness Council

Presents:

“Recognizing 8 Signs of Terrorism”

Please join us at the next meeting of the Private Sector Preparedness Council (PSPC)

Free and open to all businesses! RSVP by clicking here

When: March 9, 2017 10:00 am – 11:50 am

Where: DXATC (OLD Airport) Building St George

Who: Department of Public Safety/
Division of Emergency Management
Be Ready Business (Logan Sisam)

Agenda:

11:00 to 11:05 - Opening Remarks

11:05 to 11:45 – 8 Signs of Terrorism

11:45 to 11:50 - Q & A

Recognizing 8 Signs of Terrorism

- Surveillance
 - Demonstrating an unusual interest in facilities to determine how well the target is protected and what security measures are in place.
- Information Gathering
 - Questioning individuals at a level beyond mere curiosity.
- Testing Security
 - This may be an attempt at measuring reaction times to security breaches or assess strengths and weaknesses.
- Funding
 - The raising of money to finance illicit and potential terrorist operations.
- Acquiring Supplies
 - The acquisition of unusual amounts of precursor materials.
- Impersonation
 - Using false documents, uniforms, badges, access passes or keys to gain access to protected facilities.
- Rehearsal
 - Terrorists will often rehearse their plans several times over, to ensure successful deployment.
- Deployment
 - Terrorists are arranging their assets, getting into position or are in the midst of conducting their operation.

Report suspicious behavior to your local law enforcement agency or email sars@utah.gov

Schedule this free training for your business
Contact: Logan Sisam lsisam@utah.gov 385-227-5350

Speakers from...

Sponsored & supported by...

Private Sector Council Chair – Lee Seacrest Franklin.secrest@walmart.com

Recognizing 8 Signs of Terrorism

Surveillance

- Demonstrating an unusual interest in facilities to determine how well the target is protected and what security measures are in place.

Information Gathering

- Questioning individuals at a level beyond mere curiosity.

Testing Security

- This may be an attempt at measuring reaction times to security breaches or assess strengths and weaknesses.

Funding

- The raising of money to finance illicit and potential terrorist operations.

Acquiring Supplies

- The acquisition of unusual amounts of precursor materials.

Impersonation

- Using false documents, uniforms, badges, access passes or keys to gain access to protected facilities.

Rehearsal

- Terrorists will often rehearse their plans several times over, to ensure successful deployment.

Deployment

- Terrorists are arranging their assets, getting into position or are in the midst of conducting their operation.

Report suspicious behavior to your local law enforcement agency or email sars@utah.gov

Schedule this free training for your business
Contact: Logan Sisam lsisam@utah.gov 385-222-5350

