BUSINESS ITEM(S)

Review Building Rental Agreement
Birthday Wednesday
Update on the SRC - Murray Library Project
Let's Go Green
Coffee / Open Container
Take Home Containers after Special Events
Collection for Murray Children's Pantry / Spartan Closet

Review Building Rental Agreement - Cory will have Kim Sorensen and the City Attorney's office review the building rental agreement.

Birthday Wednesday - Omar has been purchasing Sara Lee cakes and the participants seem happy with the change.

Update on the SRC - Murray Library Project - The feasibility study is still in process. One of the main concerns is a problem with enough parking stalls for the Center, Library, and Grant Park Ball Diamonds. We are brainstorming solutions that will help to prevent the Senior Rec Center being closed if this project makes it to the construction phase.

Let's Go Green - Karen Summerhays noticed the number of plastic and Styrofoam containers that were used during the Mother's Day Tea. Suggestion was made to have the participants bring their own Tupperware containers to take home left over food in. The question is a matter of ease and the effect on the environment vs the high use of water during a drought. The Kitchen will begin using plates and silverware on July 1 and will have a cleaning station for participants to place their plates and silverware.

Coffee / Open Containers - We have noticed an increase in spills on the building carpets. People are taking uncovered coffee cups from the dining room. We are working with the Heritage Senior Adults, Inc. to have covered cups to sell as a fundraiser for scholarships. The board members suggested possible ways to personalize the mugs so the owners don't get confused.

Take Home Containers after Special Events - Already been addressed under "Let's Go Green"

Collection for Murray Children's Pantry / Spartan Closet - The collection container is full and will be emptied shortly.

REPORT(S)

Report by the Heritage Senior Adults, Inc. Representative
Director's Report by Cory Plant

Heritage Senior Adults, Inc. Representative - Ed Houston had nothing to report.

Director's Report - In the coming months, we will replace the bushes by the front vestibule with different flowers and bushes. The Center has been busy with fitness use increasing. Cory is working with a teacher for a Spanish class to start soon. We need volunteers to help with our upcoming Health and Fitness fair on Wednesday, May 31. Please know that ideas don't fall on deaf ears. We will be having a blood drive in June.
