8. Informational: Police Department Crime Reduction Strategies

~ 5:10 p.m.

30 min.

The Council will receive a briefing from the University of Texas at San Antonio professors working with the Salt Lake City Police Department on crime reduction strategies. The Police Department's 2022 Crime Control Plan was informed by the group's research, particularly to address violent crime. One of the evidence-based strategies is hot spot policing which increases police visibility in the short-term in areas where violent crime is concentrated. Another strategy is problem oriented placed based policing over the medium term to address underlying conditions contributing to crime-prone areas, such as civil enforcement, nuisance abatement, and environmental design changes. Data is tracked to compare before and after interventions to help evaluate the effectiveness of strategies.
