Kane County Tourism Mission Statement: To promote Kane County as a world class destination for visitors, and provide a memorable experience to all those who visit here.

Purpose: The Kane County Tourism Board is an advisory board functioning under the direction of the Kane County Board of Commissioners. Its goal is to advise the elected officials on the best use of revenues collected from the tourism related taxes, by providing a priority listing for proposed expenditures, projects, and goals. The Board is also to provide support, assistance, guidance and advice to the Office of Tourism.
