5. Items for Council Consideration

- 5.a Action Item: Ordinance #1588, an Ordinance of the Draper City Council adopting the 2023 Draper City Parks, Trails and Recreation Master Plan
Parks and Recreation Director Rhett Ogden reviewed an updated Parks, Trails and Recreation Master Plan with the Council. Mr. Ogden said the Parks and Recreation Committee reviewed the plan multiple times, provided feedback, and seemed pleased with the update.

Councilmember F. Lowry moved to approve Ordinance #1588. Councilmember Green seconded the motion.

Councilmember Vawdrey said she had concerns with building more multi-user trails, and pointed out that public survey comments included requests to separate trail users. Councilmember T. Lowery said she believed the importance of recognizing user conflict would become more important as the City grew and trail use increased. Councilmember T. Lowery expressed the opinion that it was important to move away from multi-use trails.

Councilmember F. Lowry withdrew his motion.

Councilmember Vawdrey moved to approve Ordinance #1588 with an amendment to include language stating that multi-use trails be used only as connectors between existing trails, and not encouraged to be built in the future. Councilmember T. Lowery seconded the motion.

A roll call vote was taken. The motion passed unanimously.
