

GRAMA Claim of Business Confidentiality

Pursuant to Utah Code Section 63G-2-305(1) and (2), and in accordance with Section 63G-2-309, _____ (company name) asserts a claim of business confidentiality to protect the following information submitted as part of a Request for Proposals.

- non-public financial statements
- specific employee name and contact information
- specific customer information, client lists, or subscription lists
- other (specify):

This claim is asserted because this information requires protection as it includes:

trade secrets as defined in Utah Code Section 13-24-2 ("Trade secret" means information, including a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique, or process, that: (a) derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use; and (b) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.)

commercial information or non-individual financial information obtained from a person if: (a) disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to result in unfair competitive injury to the person submitting the information or would impair the ability of the governmental entity to obtain necessary information in the future; [and] (b) the person submitting the information has a greater interest in prohibiting access than the public in obtaining access.

Following is a concise statement of reasons supporting the claim of business confidentiality:

Standard Wellness Utah has a number of proprietary processes that are employed to produce high quality medical cannabis for Utah patients. These processes create increased economic value to the company and should be kept confidential. The contact information for employees or owners listed in this application are their physical home addresses and personal cell phone number which are not readily available to the public. For privacy, safety and security reasons this information should remain confidential.
