VIII. Policy

UIPA is committed to proper maintenance and retention of records. The Public Records Management Act (PRMA), mandates state ownership of government records and requires their effective management (Utah Code 63A-12).

Falsifying records, deliberately concealing records, destroying records in bad faith, exploiting confidential information, or otherwise mishandling records is not acceptable. Employees must take steps to ensure potentially relevant information is not inadvertently destroyed pursuant to document retention schedules or by routine computer operations.

As a regional government entity, UIPA will adhere to the Utah State General Records Retention Schedule.

UIPA will, at a minimum:

- Designate one or more records officer to oversee record retention and management, ensure compliance with GRAMA requests

- Create and maintain records containing adequate and proper documentation of the organization, functions, policies, decisions, procedures, and essential transactions, designed to furnish information to any agency or person affected by the activities of UIPA
- Identify and take adequate steps to protect confidential and vital records
- Cooperate with the Utah Division of Archives and Records Services and all other State Agencies in the conduct of agency records management requirements and requests.

IX. GRAMA Request

A person may request to inspect or receive copies of the UIPA's records by filing a written GRAMA request. The GRAMA request must contain the required information and specific description of the records being requested. GRAMA requests can be made on the UIPA's website at <https://inlandportauthority.utah.gov/grama-requests/>

X. Fees

UIPA may charge the following fees for requests relating to GRAMA:

- There shall be no charge to a requester for staff time to review a record to determine whether it is subject to disclosure.
- The requester will be charged for staff time to search, retrieve, compile, format, manipulate, package, summarize or tailor the record into an organization or media to meet the request, and other direct administrative costs.
 - There will be no charge for the first 15 minutes of staff time.
 - The charge may not exceed the hourly rate of the lowest paid employee who, in the discretion of the Executive Director, has the necessary skill and training to perform the request.
- The requester will be charged the actual incremental cost of providing a record that is a result of computer output in accordance with §63G-2-203(2) (iii) of GRAMA.
- The requester may be charged the following additional fees:
 - Paper copies (up to 11 "x17") - 25¢ per page
