

PREVENTION THROUGH CONNECTION

2024 ELDER JUSTICE CONFERENCE

APRIL 25, 1-5 P.M.
Registration opens March 1
at utahelderjustice.org

- WHAT: U4A is hosting a state-wide conference to empower aging adults to protect themselves from elder abuse. The focus is prevention through connection.
- WHO: Seniors, caregivers, professionals are all invited to attend. The content is geared around ways aging adults can protect themselves.
- WHERE: Attendees can join the conference virtually either at home or congregating in groups. We encourage groups/senior centers/etc. to host a watch party.
- WHEN: Thursday, April 25 from 1-5 p.m.
- SPEAKERS: Connection to Others: Abuse Prevention & Social Isolation Awareness
Emily Allen, Vice President of Programs at AARP Foundation
- Connection to Resources: Don't Become a Burned Out Caregiver
Kathy Nelson, Salt Lake County Aging
- Connection to Knowledge: Warning Signs of Abuse
Megan Schmidt, Adult Protective Services
- Connection to Resources: Proper Estate Planning to Prevent Abuse
Klea Harris, attorney at Angel Advocates, LLC

Utah Association of Area Agencies on Aging

