Opening of Meeting and Roll Call

(3:00 p.m.)

Chairman Rowley welcomes those present.

Consideration of Minutes from the July 31, 2023, Meeting

(3:02 p.m.)

Commissioner Irene Hansen made a motion to approve the minutes from the July 31, 2023, meeting, as corrected. Jenny Adams with the Duchesne City Council seconded the motion. The motion passed with no opposing votes.

Election Process

(3:03 p.m.)

Roosevelt City, Major JR Bird, introduced Roy Piskadlo and Steve Aste with Election Certification Matters. They presented a packet for their presentation. The information explains who they are, why they are here, what election certification is, and why the entire state of Utah should have the same process for election integrity. They will visit all counties in Utah and provide feedback for those conducting the election. Their goal is to promote outside election experts. The public will have access to the data to conduct their research and hold the election experts accountable. Information can be found at <https://www.electioncertificationmatters.com>. The parties discuss the issues with funding and the time it would take to audit the election certification.

Flood Mapping

(3:51 p.m.)

Commissioner Hansen stated FEMA is completing the flood mapping for Duchesne County. This will affect the residents if they live in a flood area. They will be required to have flood insurance. The Planning Commission will communicate with the residents in the areas for clarification.

Affordable Housing

(4:00 p.m.)

Commissioner Hansen asked what everyone was doing to help with the housing crisis. Laurie Brummond with UBAOG explained the Self-Help program, but the issue is finding land. Roosevelt City is looking at zoning for a tiny house community. Rural Development recommends duplexes. They are building concrete A-frame houses. Tabiona Mayor John Breakfield asked why the subdivided landowners don't have to pay for road maintenance. There was no direct answer to this question.

Economic Development Grant Projects

(4:11 p.m.)

Commissioner Hansen explained the submitted Utah Rural Grant application and the funds' uses. The parties discussed sand mining, the oil & gas industry, and the possible effects of increased traffic on the class D roads.

Upcoming City & County Activities

(4:16 p.m.)

The UBMC Ribbon cutting ceremony for the new tower took place last week. The DWR approved the fish pond in Roosevelt. Marlo Oaks, the State of Utah Treasurer, will speak on October 10, 2023, at the Grace Event Center at 6:00 p.m. Duchesne City will have its Halloween Parade on Halloween. Roosevelt City will close Highway 40 for two hours for its parade. There are two fall festivals in Roosevelt starting in September. The Holly Fair is the first weekend of November, and the Enchanted Forest is also in November.

Other Business

(4:23 p.m.)

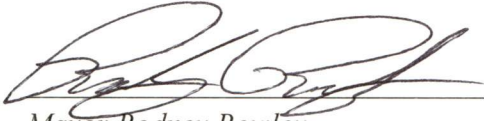

Kevin Yack with UBAOG presented a flyer for a mandatory workshop for the Community Development Block Grant Application Process. The workshop will be on October 18th at 2:00 p.m. in Roosevelt.

Adjournment

(4:31 p.m.)

Commissioner Greg Miles made a motion to adjourn at 4:31 p.m. Roosevelt City Mayor JR Bird seconded the motion. The forum adjourned.

Read and approved this on the 22nd day of January 2024.
