2. 2023-2024 (LINK)
  - a. Plan Progress Update and discussed MAP Data
3. Discussed, Developed, and approved the plan for 2024/2025
  - a. Based on the 2022/2023 and 2023/2024 data, we will focus our attention and funds on the 9th through the 11th-grade student population. The 7-8th grade students are doing very well comparatively and those with needs for individual help will still have it.
  - b. The test will still be given across all grade levels.
  - c. To increase reading proficiency by three-point growth based on the RIT score from the beginning of the year assessment to the end of year assessment for students in 9th-11th grades who attended from August through May. Additionally, each grade level will meet or exceed the national norm's percentile as calculated by NWEA MAP.
  - d. To increase math proficiency by ten-point growth based on the RIT score from the beginning of the year assessment to the end of year assessment for students in 9th-11th grades who attended from August through May. Additionally, each grade level will meet or exceed the national norm's percentile as calculated by NWEA MAP.
