6.05.425 Feeding Wild Birds / Fowl

It shall be unlawful for any person to deposit, place, or distribute feed of any kind intended for or attracting to wild birds or fowl on the ground or other surface, or in feeders or other receptacles or structures placed on the ground or other surface, except as provided herein. Feed intended for or attracting to wild birds or fowl may be placed in a container located on private property a minimum of ten (10) feet from any property line. If placed in the front yard area containers must be located a minimum of five (5) feet off the ground, and such feeders may not exceed 300 cubic inches in capacity. This language shall not be construed to prohibit feeding of legally maintained chickens, ducks, or other fowl where allowed by zoning, nor to prohibit the occasional recreational feeding of ducks or birds along waterways.
