

Grand Area Mentoring

Risk Factors

Anti-social behavior

Academic achievement

Drug use

Protective Factors

Rewards for pro-social involvement

Prevention

Mentoring helps prevent:

- Academic failure
- Drug use
- Dropout
- Self-harm
- Violence

Grand Area Mentoring

Project Mission:

Empower students to unlock their potential, successfully navigate the challenges of academic and public life, and cultivate a passion for lifelong learning.

Youth Mentoring

Who participates?

The Mentees

The Mentors

The Families

6.6% of Moab's student population

Meeting Across Moab

School and community-based mentoring

Perhaps the only program of its kind in America

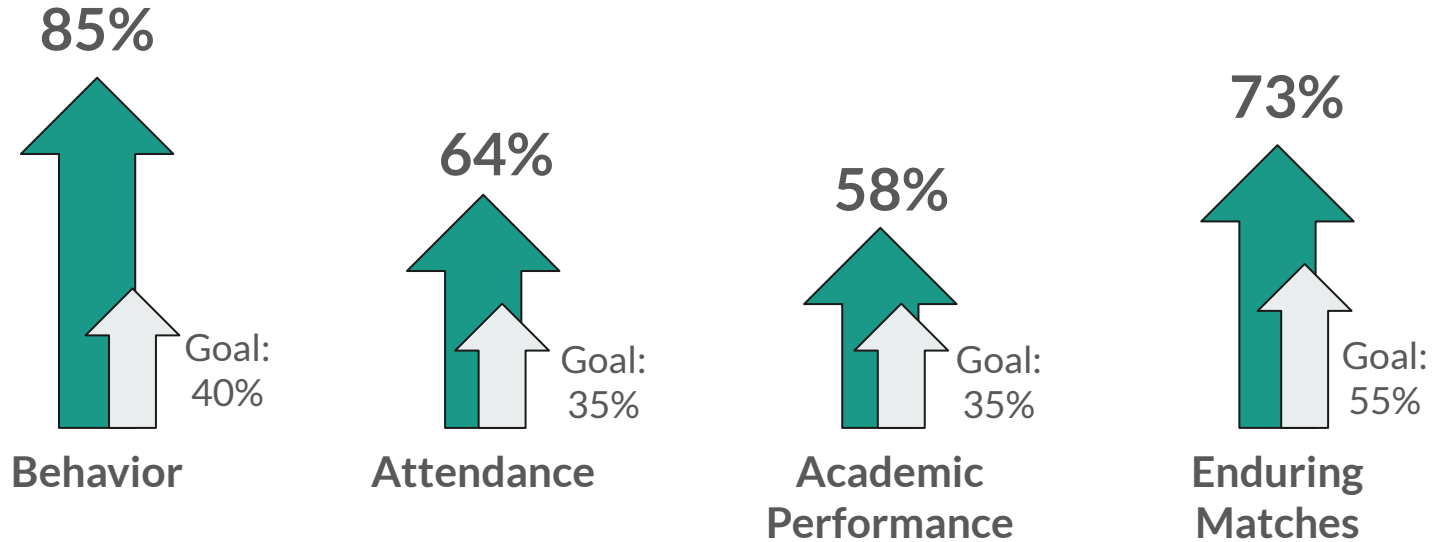

Match Duration:

500% better than the national average

Outcomes

Goals vs. Actual

Risk Factors

-  Anti-social behavior
-  Academic achievement
-  Drug use

Protective Factors

-  Rewards for pro-social involvement

Long-Term Impact

PLAYING TENNIS, LEARNING HOW TO HANDSHAKE, SETTING A COURSE FOR THE FUTURE...

This is mentoring

FROM ELEMENTARY SCHOOL TO EARLY GRADUATION!

