C. POTENTIAL ACTION ITEMS:

1. TENTATIVE – Resolution: University of Utah Baseball Stadium Public Benefits Analysis

The Council will consider authorizing a 99-year below-market ground lease to the University of Utah of 1.175 acres of Salt Lake City-owned property at approximately 1735 Sunnyside Avenue. This lease would facilitate the expansion of the University's baseball field to meet the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) requirements for a competition field, but also result in the removal of one existing City-owned softball field and one multi-purpose field located at Sunnyside Park. In exchange for this lease, the University would commit $4.2 million to the City for improvements and new amenities at Sunnyside Park, as well as, possibly, other public benefits. The types of improvements and amenities would be determined through a community engagement process.

TENTATIVE Council Action - Tuesday, March 5, 2024

Staff Recommendation - Refer to motion sheet(s).

2. Ordinance: Community Benefit and Tenant Displacement Amendments

The Council will consider adopting an ordinance designed to prevent the loss of existing affordable housing, counteract tenant displacement, and provide tenant relocation assistance when they are displaced by new development. The amendments to Salt Lake City Code would enact a new ordinance on General Plans (Title 19) and make corresponding changes in sections related to zoning (Titles 18 and 21A). These changes are designed to help implement policies approved by the Council in 2023 in the Thriving in Place anti-displacement plan.

3. Ordinance: Landscaping and Buffers Chapter Text Amendment

The Council will consider adopting an ordinance that would amend various sections of Title 21A of the Salt Lake City Code pertaining to Landscaping and Buffers chapter amendments. The proposed amendments would seek to reduce water consumption, enhance the urban forest, and improve air quality and green infrastructure city-wide. The proposal would also seek to clarify, simplify, and reorganize the landscaping and buffer chapter to be more user-friendly. The City Council may consider modifications to other related sections of the code as part of this proposal.
