Council Special Business

Salt Lake County Sheriff Presentation

Sheriff Rosie Rivera delivered a PowerPoint presentation entitled: Re-Established Law Enforcement Bureau (Model Contract for Salt Lake Valley Law Enforcement Service Area (SLVLESA). She reviewed transition goals of maintaining service levels and taking care of the people providing services. She also spoke of the vision and SLVLESA-specific goals.

Chief Jason Ackerman, Sheriff's Office, continued the presentation reviewing general observations about the budget and the organizational chart; the SLVLESA model contract budget; the proposed organizational chart for the re-established law enforcement bureau; and the philosophy for partnership in contracting.

Unified Police Department Presentation

Chief Jason Mazuran, Unified Police Department (UPD), delivered a PowerPoint presentation entitled: Unified We Stand Stronger Together. He reviewed the Vision and Mission Statement for Unified Police Greater Salt Lake (UPD); a draft of the current organizational chart as of January 23, 2024; the importance of UPD providing local control; how UPD is expertise based; SLVLESA Tax Revenue for 2023; and key reasons for working together with Copperton Metro Township.

Captain Del Craig, UPD, stated while UPD response times are not ideal, they also are not bad considering the model under which UPD is working. Location and proximity drive the issue. UPD has a commitment to continuing recent improvements.

Decision on Law Enforcement Service Provider for Copperton

DATE TUESDAY FEBRUARY 6, 2024

Mayor Clayton stated during closed session, the Council decided to wait and see what the final UPD Interlocal Agreement looks like. Once that has been reviewed, the Copperton Metro Township Council will pass a resolution on February 21, 2024, to announce its decision.

Nathan Bracken, Legal Counsel, Kearns Metro Township, stated, for the record, that there had been an Interlocal Drafting Committee meeting this morning that he attended where removing SLVLESA as a member entity was discussed. The County has concerns about SLVLESA being part of the interlocal agreement because it does not want to be responsible for costs.

THERE BEING NO FURTHER BUSINESS to come before the Council at this time, the meeting was adjourned.
