MOTION

II.

A. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

The Board reviewed the minutes of the December 13th, 2023, Cemetery Board Meeting.

Approval of minutes has been continued due to needing some minor changes.

III. AGENDA ITEMS

- A. OPMA Training- Presented by Candice Maudsley, Utah Open & Public Meetings Act Training handout is provided.
- B. Memorial Day Program Speaker- Suggested names are brought up for Speakers. Beverly Thomas states they are honoring Leo Morris Christensen this year. A new Veteran has moved into town, he's a retired dentist. There has been a request for a portable restroom for Memorial Day at the Pioneer Cemetery. Discussion is held regarding having a Clean Up Day at the Pioneer Cemetery and getting it out to all denominations. Improvements that need to be made to the fence on the West side entrance. They would like to keep the Pioneer theme, with dry landscapes and maybe desert theme. Beverly states she is working on a the back side of the sign. Ben Gordon states they have an acquaintance that has offered to help with spraying the weeds and may be willing to come to the board meeting or meet with the cemetery sexton. Discussion is held regarding toppled headstones and finding family to take care of the plots and headstones. Pioneer Cemetery clean-up day is set for May 18, 2024 from 8 a.m.-12 p.m.

IV. SEXTON REPORT- Shane Davis is excused.
