Tessa introduced herself as a new program coordinator being trained and her previous experience in the water quality field.

4. Update on implementation of computer-based (CBT) exams through PSI.
Tessa Scheuer reported on the status of the exams following a meeting the previous week with WPI staff. Plans are to be able to proceed sometime in April following the 30-day blackout after the March 1st exams at RWAU. Chad suggested providing an overview of the process during the WEAU Conference. There are questions of how accommodations will be handled, such as dyslexia, once the new format is in place. There are also other questions that need to be answered. We will have procedures for testing prior to any fee changes— while the fees are being paid by DWQ, and different procedures after the fees change, if approved by the legislature. Once DWQ has received an application, the information is passed to PSI. Once PSI has the information, they contact the examinee directly with information on registering for the specific location, date, and time for testing. There are questions about where the testing locations will be.

WEAU's collections college training is beginning this week. RWAU has started regular monthly virtual wastewater training sessions.

7. Facility Compliance worksheet review

Tessa reviewed communications and feedback she received from Castle Valley SSD; Courthouse Wash (Arches SSD); Canyon Land ID; Garland City; information about the process of separating the Logan City collection system from the new Logan Regional Wastewater Treatment Plant in our database; update from Phil about Manila; Mexican Hat SSD; Mountain Sewer (Weber County); Price City; Mt. Pleasant; Scofield SSD; Ticaboo SSD; and Woodland Hills. Several systems are on the watch list for needing to remove the restrictions. Also need verification of contracts still being in force for North Village SSD, Strawberry Lakeview SSD, Twin Creeks SSD, and Powder Mountain W&SID.

8. Review of 2023 Annual Report Draft – the plan would be to present the final version at the Water Quality Board meeting in April which may be held in St. George during the WEAU Conference. Chad would present it as the council chair. Suggestions requested from the members of any items that should be included...and a picture to use on the cover. Judy noted that 150 new people registered to take exams last year, with 1819 active in the database, and 1342 hold some type of certification. Some facility classifications have changed—usually to higher ones due to additional population or treatment processes. Maybe mention the monthly RWAU training in next year's report. Several facilities started using the American Water College training to help prepare operators for exams. Oral exams administered. Remove COVID comments.

9. Spring Paper-based exams are scheduled for Friday, March 1st at the Dixie Center, St. George. Morning session – Check in 8:15 am; Instructions at 8:30 am. Application deadline was February 2nd. (102 examinees) Proctors: Judy Etherington, Tessa Scheuer, Robert Beers, Chad Burrell
