ACTION ITEMS

1. Training: Use of Less Than Lethal Force

- Sgt. Clayton Anderson gave a brief overview of what would be covered throughout the training.
- Sgt. Anderson began the training by going over the taser by giving an overview of how the taser works and different factors in its effectiveness.
- Each board member was given the opportunity to hold and look at the taser and the cartridge.
- Sgt. Anderson went over the training that officers receive regarding the taser, as well as its usefulness in different situations.
- Board Member Zac Barnes asked Deputy Chief Ryan Cram about reviewing the policies and procedures with taser usage.
- Deputy Chief Cram explained the procedure and capability regarding tasers and reviewing their use.
- Det. Quinton Addison then began going over OC Spray, or Pepper Spray. He explained the process of making the spray, the different streams available, how it's deployed, and what happens after OC Spray is deployed.
- Sgt. Anderson went over the benefits and risks of using a taser or OC Spray in different scenarios.
- Deputy Chief Cram explained the difference in recovery time between the taser and OC Spray.
- Det. Addison began training on 40mm Projectile Launchers, how often they're used, different ammunitions, and functionality.
- Board Member Barnes asked if batons were still used.
- Sgt. Anderson with Det. Addison explained that the option was there to carry them and the policy regarding their use.
- Deputy Chief Cram mentioned that another less than lethal option is the K9.
- Board Member Miller thanked Sgt. Anderson and Det. Addison for their time and training.

2. Board Members Round Table Discussions.

Board Chair Glad reminded all board members to schedule their ride-along.

Board Member Barnes asked Deputy Chief Cram if excited delirium was still being used in the department as an acceptable reason for anything.

The board with Deputy Chief Cram had a lengthy discussion on the term excited delirium, extreme chaotic events, and medical terminology.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

1. Salient Points of Digital Interactions

- Board Chair Glad explained the difficulties in logistics in having a recording or transcript of the problem. Rather than best practices, it could be an SOP.
- Board Member Barnes would like a policy applied.
- The board with Deputy Chief Cram had a lengthy discussion on the logistics of the policy and how to make this work as a policy
- Board Member Barnes offered to close this discussion and continue at another meeting for the sake of time.

Board Member Miller made a motion to table this discussion.
