Pledge of Allegiance

(9:01 a.m.)

Recognition for Union High School 3A Boys Baseball and Girls Track State Championship

(9:02 a.m.)

The Union High School Boys' Baseball Team and Girls' Track Team were present at the meeting. Commissioner Hansen described how they have made history for Duchesne County. She showed the County History books and told a story of a Rodeo Queen whose story was in the book. Each Commissioner congratulated the teams for their accomplishments. The Baseball team has twenty-eight players, three seniors, six coaches, and three managers. The Track Team has thirty-five girls and six coaches. Ten girls qualified for state. A student and coach from each team spoke and described their experiences and gratitude for the team and community support.

Public Works Update

(9:31 a.m.)

Public Works Director Mike Casper gave an update on existing projects and upcoming work. The Mortenson Lane (CR 50) project is almost complete. Potholes are being repaired throughout the County. They assisted Ovintiv last week with the community cleanup. Dump trucks were provided to haul garbage. McConkey's Road (CR 132) has been zipped and will be chipped later this fall. Commissioner Miles stated some timber left from last fall needs to be cleaned up. They have hired two new employees.

Discussion & Consideration of the Court Security Contract for FY25

(9:37 a.m.)

Sheriff Travis Tucker and Sheriff's Office Manager Cynthia Wardle presented the State of Utah Contract # 160159 Amendment #9. Sheriff Tucker explained the rate has increased from 51% to 55%. For Bailiff Security, 700 hours are allotted at $28.77 per hour for $20,139.00. The perimeter security hours allotted are 3114 for $28.77 per hour for $89,589.78.
