

Revised Vision Options-

1. One community working together to achieve full inclusion and participation of people with developmental disabilities.
2. The vision of the Utah Developmental Disabilities Council is one community working together to make sure people with developmental disabilities are fully included and able to participate.
3. Our vision is a world where everyone has access to the help they need. They can reach their goals and fully participate as empowered, valued members of their communities.

Revised Values-

We Believe:

- Disability is a part of the human experience
- People with disabilities make the decisions that impact their lives
- With the right help, people can be active in their communities
- People have the right to appropriate supports
- All people rely on and need the support of each other
- Everyone is valuable and worthy of respect
- Communities are stronger when everyone helps to build them
- All people have the right to speak up and be heard
- There is richness in how people choose to live their lives
- People with disabilities are free to make their own choices
