Residents of Willard and South Willard met with Willard City and Box Elder County officials to discuss the future land use and zoning of South Willard. Questions regarding annexation were answered, and Mayor Travis Mote emphasized that while there are multiple applications from independent landowners for annexation, Willard City is not actively proposing to annex South Willard.

Mayor asked all those in attendance to review the displayed maps of South Willard and leave comments about future zoning for South Willard.

The open house adjourned at approximately 9:30 p.m.

Minutes were read individually and approved on: 6/6/24
