5. City Council Vacancy Interviews: There was only one candidate to fill the vacancy. Kari Alton was asked a series of questions by the Orangeville City Council Members. Council Member Addley asked Kari Why she would like to become part of Orangeville City Council? Kari's response was because she would like to more involved with the city. Council Member Butler asks, what would she like to see changed or improved in the city? Kari's response is that she would like to see what is going on in the city currently. She understands that the city in the past has acquired grants to accomplish some of its projects as well as the walking path that has gone in. Council Member Stilson asks Kari the question, how would you handle conflict between council members or the Mayor? She states that the word professional comes to mind and that she feels that situations should be handle professionally to come to an agreement. Lastly, Mayor Bell asks Kari if she would be able to help with Orangeville Days if she were to become the new Council Member. She states that she would be available and is already helping with the kid's games. Mayor Bell then asks to name one of her strongest attributes. Kari says that she thinks that patience is one of her strongest attributes and that working with the kids at the elementary contributes to that. After hearing Kari's responses to those questions, the council decided to have Kari join the Orangeville City Council.
