Agenda items:

Review and finalization of 24th of July Celebration

Councilmember Simmonds shared that the celebration’s plans are set to go. He shared that the new tables should be coming this weekend, and that Sheri Newton has the parade ready, and the lunch is planned. The Council discussed that the breakfast would begin at 7 but they would start cooking at 6:30. Mayor Payne would be the one to read and announce the citizen of the year. He stated that he has obtained $2 to give as change for breakfast. The council decided to ring the bell to start breakfast. All aspects of the carnival are set including the bucking bull and all the games. The dinner is planned to start at 7 p.m. Councilmember Davis stated he would be out of town that day.

Discussion and choosing of Citizen of Year

The Council discussed options for a 2024 Citizen of the Year. The Council discussed several names and determined to choose Troy Lott as the 2024 Citizen of the Year. Mayor Payne suggested that the person who does the nominating should read the information about the Citizen of the Year.

Councilmember Merrill stated that he has contacted Brent King to camera the collapsed pipe under the road at 200 South and Center to see what the problem with the pipe is. He also discussed billing Dave Ezola for repairs done on the road near 600 South and 400 East, he asked that it be put on the agenda for next month.
