What is a Certified Local Government?

A Certified Local Government (CLG) is a local government that has been “certified” by the National Park Service.

How does a local government become a CLG?

- Pass a preservation ordinance
- Appoint a historic preservation commission

Commission Duties

- Advise the City Council and others in the community on matters related to historic preservation.
- Coordinate surveys of local historic properties in compliance with standards set by the SHPO.
- Participate in planning and land-use processes with the City that have the potential to affect historic properties.
- Promote educational and interpretive programs related to the community's history and historic properties.
- Review and comment to the SHPO regarding all proposed National Register nominations of properties in the community
- Apply for and administer grants/ financial aid for historic preservation projects in the city.

CLG Grants

- CLG Grants are available every January.
- These are reimbursement matching (50/50) grants.
- CLG Grant awards are limited to $20,000 maximum depending on project type.
- Grant cycle runs for 16 months.
