4. Board Members Round Table Discussion – Starting from the East, for each board member Board Chair Glad reminded board members to do their required ride-alongs, get caught up on cases, and mentioned the possibility of additional meetings to catch up. Board Chair Glad also reminded board members that National Night Out is the following evening and that the board will have a table and tent provided by the Police Department. A list of the schedule for the evening was also provided.

Board Member Jason Keffer also emphasized that to the board the reminder of catching up on cases and noted his appreciation to the Police Department for doing so.

Board Member Zac Barnes asked if the tent provided by the Police Department for National Night Out was a branded tent. Lieutenant Tyler Cluff explained that the tent was not branded, just a white tent.

Board Member Barnes noted the email he had sent to the board on ideas for best practices, specifically not reviewing cases in closed door when an officer who was involved in the case is present due to a possible intimidation factor and in the interest of transparency and fairness. The board began to discuss the proposition. Deputy City Attorney Brie Brass then stated that this item would need to be tabled and moved to the next meeting agenda, as this is a topic that should be noticed to the public as they might have a say and opinion on the matter. Board Member Barnes asked for clarification as to what could and could not be talked about in round table discussions. Deputy City Attorney Brass explained that when items could be of interest to the public where they might have comments then it needs to be noticed.
