---------------	----------------	---------------

A City Council work session was held at Union Grill in Ogden to discuss City vision and goals. The discussions included the 2023 retreat requests, City Council suggestions, and the Staff retreat.

2023 Council Retreat Requests

Mayor Bott asked if last year's requests were completed to the Council's satisfaction. Councilmember Troxell spoke about the request to provide more information on upcoming agenda items. Councilmembers felt more information was being provided overall especially with the work sessions. Councilmember Jensen appreciated all of the information on the utility revenue bond. They discussed the parking ordinance changes and the Police Department dispersing information to the public, and leniency with the enforcement. Mayor Bott invited Councilmembers to contact executive Staff directly with questions and to attend Executive Staff meetings.

Council Suggestions & Discussions

- Social media spotlight on the completion of City projects and on the public's FAQs
 - Upcoming podcasts will help with FAQs
- Continuation of town hall meetings
- Future annexations
- Staff support and succession planning
- Employee surveys

Staff Retreat

Councilmembers discussed growth and development after reviewing the future annexations map from the Staff retreat.

- Airport
- Connectivity and land use
- Trail system
- Pioneer Park and Bill of Rights Plaza improvements

Mayor Bott offered a public comment period.

Daniel Kennedy – Mr. Kennedy spoke about using social media to highlight completed projects, planning for the east and west sides of the City, a diverse City Council, and property tax increases.

The meeting adjourned at 8:17 pm.

The undersigned duly appointed Recorder for Brigham City Corporation hereby certifies that the foregoing is a true, accurate and complete record of the August 29, 2024 City Council Special Meeting.

Dated this 23rd day of September 2024.
