Summary

The meeting transitioned from a closed session to a public hearing on proposed fee schedule updates. A motion was made and passed to open the public hearing, where concerns about a new water convenience fee were raised by a town official. Discussion ensued about the costs and logistics of water sampling, with Paradise Town granting $15,000 for drinking water expenses. The council decided to adopt the new fee schedule, effective January 1, 2025. The next meeting was scheduled for December 11, with a budget hearing set for the same day. The location for the budget hearing was confirmed to be in Logan.

Action Items

- [] Adopt the proposed 2024 fee schedule changes
