(Meeting Called to Order: 3:08 pm)

1. Welcome

Commissioner Sakievich

2. CJCC Legislative and Funding Report

-Steve Hunter

(Timestamp: 00:20)

- Steve Hunter discussed the CJCC reform in general update from the legislative session including, objectives, appropriations.
- Stated that in the past the state was in the mode of trying to incorporate justice reform from the legislature and funnel it out to the criminal justice system and it didn't work hence that is why we have this council now which has been very beneficial in the eyes of the legislature.
- Also stated that funding for particular things is focused around receiving centers.
- He asked, what type of things do we need for software, what type of staffing needs, are there needs beyond receiving centers?

3. Re-entry Services

-Dan Chestnut

(Timestamp: 7:50)

- Dan Chestnut (Utah Department of Corrections, Division Director for Reentry and Rehabilitation). He introduced himself and said his department is committed to the county. Talked about the Timpanogos Community Treatment Center and re-entry services.

4. Pre-trial Services

-Jeff Gray

(Timestamp: 18:15)

- Report on meeting with Weber County and would like to pattern our pre-trial services after their program. Would like to consider funding for additional employees and software. Need to work out how this program would work and create some models.
- Judge Porter: The bench is in favor with any pre-trial services and any support they can get.
- Question regarding a report that was turned in and if any funds were received for pre-trial services.

5. Updates and New Business

-CJCC Members

(Timestamp: 32:00)

- Monte Memmott reported on services that are provided by Wasatch Mental Behavioral for re-entry.

6. Schedule Next Meeting
