- During a graveyard shift, several Millcreek patrol officers responded swiftly to a burglary alarm at a local bike shop. Upon arrival, officers observed signs of forced entry and noted that property inside had been moved and was missing. Assisting officers located a male suspect at a nearby gas station riding what appeared to be a brand-new bike. The suspect was detained, read his Miranda rights, questioned, and found to be in possession of burglary tools and additional stolen items. Thanks to the quick response of the officers, the burglary was identified, the suspect apprehended, and the case resolved efficiently. Stolen property was returned to its rightful owner, and the suspect was charged. Furthermore, Millcreek detectives are actively investigating this case to determine potential connections to similar burglaries that occurred around the same time.
