PROPERTY PURCHASE UPDATES

Kim updated that we have purchased two properties using the park impact fees. This includes Fireclay and the church property on 6400 S, in conjunction with Salt Lake County.

MARKETING SPECIALIST

The City has hired Erica Brown as our new Marketing Specialist. She begins September 30th and will start by marketing the Theater, Armory, Amphitheater and eventually expand into different areas of the city.

CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS

Kim suggested moving next month's meeting to the Armory so that the board can see the construction updates.

There was a recent change for the theater due to the ongoing draining issue.

The Mansion is moving along nicely with an expected completion date in November.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Intermountain Healthcare has graciously donated $3,000.00 towards this year's Volunteer Banquet. Kim was thinking about using a local Murray business this year, Tea Rose Diner, to cater for this event and asked the board if they had any thoughts on parting gifts.

PARKS AND RECREATION POOL PARTY

Kim asked the board what their thoughts were on how they liked the annual Parks and Recreation pool party. Should there be any changes? All members that were able to attend felt they and their families had a great time.
