

Cultural Arts Advisory Commission

November 15, 2024

12:00 PM

In Attendance:

Agenda Item:

Halloween Event Review

- Attendance wasn't great due to the cold weather. People did show up for trick or treating.
- Next year make signs to advertise what is happening on the stage.
- The commission was happy with the story tellers, they liked the hay bales, just sad that it was cold and the turnout wasn't as big as they were expecting.

Winter Arts Plan Continued Discussion

- They talked about doing a sing along movie, maybe wicked - Jo Governelli in the library. Frozen. (If we do frozen we should have someone dress up as Elsa)
- Pipe band with Irish dancing with mentoring/coaching. Irish festival near st patricks day.
- Have a series of events using the CARE groups. Every week can be a different theme. Native American group. Do it every Monday as a Family Night in Family City
- Sweetheart serenade singing for the first week of February - no Thursdays (Nathan is taking the reins on this)

City Council Report Prep

- Adam said he could lead it. 10 minutes or less for the presentation.
- Ambassadors program
- Concert series with the farmers market
- Public art
- World Folk Fest
- Trying to have an arts council component at every event
- Art is a public good that uplifts everyone in the community, rich or poor. Events are free so everyone can be involved and enjoy local art and events.
- Plan going forward

Arts Ambassadors Report

- We need a report on when groups are performing so we can get it placed on the calendar and also promote each event.

Scott Swain motioned, Lia Collins seconded to approve the October 11, 2024 minutes

Next Meeting: December 20, 2024