Standing Rules Section 5 (NEW)

Minutes of the Civilian Review Board

Recordings

The City Recorder shall keep the minutes of the proceedings of all open CRB meetings or any meeting during which official action of the CRB is taken.

Within one (1) month of the open meeting, the City Recorder or designee shall present the draft minutes to the CRB for final approval. When convenient and possible, the CRB shall approve, amend, or reject the minutes at its next meeting.

Minutes which are submitted for approval, but upon which action is not taken within one month, shall be deemed approved and stand as proposed. Draft minutes are public records and must be clearly designated as “draft” minutes on any copy provided to the public.

There shall be no minutes or records of closed CRB meetings as per Utah State Annotated Code Closed meeting held pursuant to Utah Code Annotated, 1953, as amended, Sec. 52-4-204, Sec. 52-4-205 (1) (a), et seq. for the following purposes:
Discussion of character, professional competence, physical or mental health of an individual.

The minutes of all meetings will include the time and date, the names of those speaking, reflect the essence of the proceedings and the perceived intent of the person speaking and will not necessarily be a verbatim transcript. Where necessary, as determined by the CRB to accurately reflect the proceedings, a specific and/or verbatim transcript of the proceeding will be included in the minutes. If a CRB Member, the Mayor, a citizen or any other person wishes something to be entered verbatim into the minutes, a written copy of such entry will be provided to the City Recorder. Minutes may not be amended to include information which was not a part of the meeting.

The City Recorder or designee shall make and keep an audio or audio-visual recording of all meetings, unless excepted pursuant to state law. The recording shall be made and kept in a format conducive to long-term storage. Recordings of open meetings shall be available to the public for inspection or purchase within five (5) business days of the CRB hearing.
