Commission Member Jeff Trimble – excused
Commission Member Brooke Glaittli – excused Commission Member Sheri Withers

Others:

Jamie Larsen, City Recorder

1. Call to Order - 6:05 p.m.

2. Welcome to Sheri Withers, New Member

Ben Behrmann welcome Sheri Withers as a new member of the Historic Preservation Commission.

3. Minutes

Minutes from HPC meeting on November 7, 2024 were approved (Motion by Alex and second by Kim).

4. Oral History Project

Ben reported that Jeff and Brooke are continuing to work on the oral history project but were unable to come to the meeting.

5. Historic Homes Project

Alex reported that the Catron family was presented the plaque for the National Register during City Council meeting. He is working on highlighting changes to city code and requested a meeting with the City Attorney. He also asked if he could work with the GIS department about a map which would detail the year that homes were built within all areas of Riverton.

Jamie reported that emails were set up for all members of the Historic Preservation Commission with a group created which can receive emails at hpc@rivertonutah.gov. She will also be ordering business cards that members can take within them when talking to other residents about the various projects.

Jamie will schedule a meeting with Ryan Carter, City Attorney, and with the Communications department to talk about the code and the flyer for the Historic Homes Project.

6. Discussion on Park History Project

Ben reported that the City had asked him to provide a short narrative about the history in each one of the city parks. The Parks Department will be replacing the park signs and providing the history on the new signs. He is trying to complete this in the next few weeks.

8. Adjournment

Motion to adjourn by Alex, second by Kim. Meeting was adjourned at 6:32 p.m.

APPROVED: HPC Meeting 4.3.25
