Library Business:

Kami made a motion to approve the agenda. This was seconded by Wanda. It was approved unanimously by all in attendance.

Lauren made a motion to approve the minutes from the Library Board meeting that was held on February 26, 2025. This was seconded by Krista. It was approved unanimously by all present.

Kami made a list of businesses to be contacted regarding donations for the summer reading program. Assignments were made as to who would be responsible for contacting those businesses. Linda K said that Lakeshore would not be helping this year. The Kickoff party will be on May 30 and will run from 4:30-8:30 at Garland City park. The theme will be "Color Your World with Imagination", centered around Willy Wonka. There will be 12 authors, games, foam-tacular, a chocolate fountain (one trip only per person), and free hot dog, chips and water. Following the kickoff, there will be a movie in the park, which will be "Willy Wonka".

Board Business:

The first softball game fundraiser will be on Apr 12. There will be a game every Saturday through June 14.

Garland City Business:

Linda B said that there are 250 packages of hamburger in the fridge/freezer that can be used at the softball games.

The columns need to be fixed on the library stairs.

Public Comments:
