LOCAL BUILDING AUTHORITY of SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH MEETING

A. LBA OPENING CEREMONY:

1. Board/Council Member Dan Dugan will conduct the formal meeting.
2. Pledge of Allegiance.
3. Welcome and Public Meeting Rules.

B. LBA PUBLIC HEARINGS:

1. Resolution: Budget for the Local Building Authority for Fiscal Year 2024-25

The Board will accept public comment and consider approving a resolution that would adopt the final budget for the Capital Projects Fund of the Local Building Authority of Salt Lake City, Utah for Fiscal Year 2024-25.

The LBA's Capital Projects Fund for Fiscal Year 2024-25 only includes the bond debt services for the Glendale and Marmalade Libraries. (Other Capital projects throughout the City are included in the Mayor's Recommended Budget; see the Capital Improvement Program Budget Book.) The LBA is a financing tool for cities and government entities, like libraries, to bond for capital projects at better interest rates. Capital projects are big construction projects like parks, public buildings, and street projects.

Jennifer Bruno provided a brief introduction.

Julia McGonigle spoke to Budget Item #11 and being opposed to the proposed increase in salary for the Mayor and said salary increases should be going to Police and Fire personnel, other Council Members who were underpaid, and librarians.

Bill Hirt spoke to Budget Item #11 and being opposed to the proposed increase in salary for the Mayor and cited reporting that this would place the Mayor above or equal to Mayors of far larger cities in the west such as Sacramento where the population was much larger than Salt Lake City.

Julian Jurkoic expressed frustrations for lack in funding for the Safer Crossings Program and spoke to the dangers of many roads in the City, citing a high number of traffic fatalities and injuries in his neighborhood alone.

Kristina Robb spoke regarding Budget Item #9; the importance of fire/emergency personnel for their volunteer work and their own personal needs, and asked the Council to review their pay structure.

Lily Robb spoke regarding Budget Item #9 and to their history/experience working with Emergency Medical Services (EMS) personnel, the challenges they faced both personally and monetarily, and asked the Council and Mayor to support Salt Lake City Firefighters.

Wendy Garvin spoke to being in support of the City providing restrooms for the unsheltered community and general public and thanked the Council for its serious consideration of the initiative.

Simon Rucinski spoke to Budget Item #11 and being opposed to the proposed increase in salary for the Mayor and said the money could be better allocated for issues the City faced that were not being addressed.

S W spoke to Budget Item #11 and being opposed to the proposed increase in salary for the Mayor, and said the money could be better allocated for the City's aging infrastructure, green space, and trails.

Jeff Bair spoke to the Capital Improvement Program (CIP) grant program needing to be funded as part of the budget, stated very few CIP proposals were funded over the past year, traffic calming in the Liberty Wells neighborhood was direly needed, and urged the Council to fund the grant program.

Roberto Tamayo spoke to being homeless, being witness to addiction, helping those in need on the streets when necessary, how people treated each other, and interactions with Police personnel.

Jon Hall spoke to being homeless and the importance of access to restrooms/showers/food and urged the Council to help with sanctioned camping spaces for a place to call home and access to showers and restrooms to maintain hygiene.

Kseniya Kniazeva thanked the Council for recent initiatives to assist the homeless community and advocated for sanctioned camping, safe parking spaces, laundry, restroom and shower facilities.

Cristiam Quispe spoke of being from Peru and now living homeless in Salt Lake City for a year now, described difficulties finding safe places to sleep or take showers, and having no financial means to get immigration paperwork finalized to find employment, thanked the Council for hearing his story.

Rashad Grey spoke to recently becoming homeless, being asked to leave/getting kicked out of places near resources like food, having his tent removed while he was away trying to find a job, the importance of having a safe place to store belongings and restroom facilities.

Brandon Jeanpierre thanked the Council for appropriating funds for more public restrooms, spoke to the dire issue of homelessness here and across the country.

Eric Povilus spoke to Budget Item #11 and being opposed to the proposed increase in salary for the Mayor, citing no justification that merited such an increase especially when such things as the City's infrastructure had been neglected, suggested if the Council thought a raise was appropriate, to provide one equal to the average pay raise for a City employee.

Motion:

Moved by Council Member Wharton, seconded by Council Member Lopez Chavez to close the public hearing and refer items G3 through G11 to a future agenda for action.

H. POTENTIAL ACTION ITEMS:

1. Resolution: Authorizing Assistance for Fairmont Heights Senior Housing Development at 2257 South 1100 East

The Council will consider a resolution that would adopt the conclusions of the public benefit analysis for the proposed Fairmont Heights Project at 2257 South 1100 East. The project would provide approximately 110 units of new affordable senior housing on a 0.81-acre property. The Administration intends to use $5.6 million in “dormant” funds from the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program and seeks authorization from the Council to negotiate final terms with the Housing Authority of Salt Lake City.

Council Member Dugan reiterated the rules of decorum.

MINUTES OF THE SALT LAKE CITY COUNCIL, LOCAL BUILDING AUTHORITY AND REDEVELOPMENT AGENCY

Tuesday, June 4, 2024

Christopher Jay spoke regarding Abravenel Hall and the symphony being state treasures, the residents of SLC should not be tasked with funding its renovation, and encouraged the Council to advocate for renovation to the hall (not replacing/rebuilding).

Russell Erbe spoke regarding the proposed tax increase to develop the area around the Delta Center, said it would push out current residents and turn downtown areas into exclusive destinations, urged the Council to find alternative ways to develop the area without burdening residents with increased taxes.

Jen Colby spoke to being opposed to a 30-year tax increase that would subsidize wealthy sports team owners vs. all of the other needs in the City such as well designed pedestrian zones and complete protected bicycle networks throughout downtown, and asked the Council to reject the proposal.

Bill Hirt spoke to design flaws (in a newly re-engineered street) in relation to a bus having to stop at the intersection of 900 East and 900 South that blocked west bound traffic on a one lane street, and said the money it cost to reconstruct could have been better used.

Misty Meyers reminded Council Members that a cease-fire resolution for Gaza could still be called for, spoke to the number of victims/deaths in the conflict, and expressed disappointment with the current proposed budget (the Mayor's increase in salary) and the proposed tax increase.

Monica Hilding spoke to being opposed to the sports center development stating the money could be used in better ways, suggested instead to build a better downtown that was friendly to pedestrians, bicyclists, and people who used public transportation.

Jeff Bair spoke to difficulties with being able to register to speak during the general comment portion of the meeting and suggested an online registration method to accommodate those who could not physically show up before the cut off time for registering.

Meg Griffes said there was still time, still a chance, and still a request from the public for the Council to pass a cease-fire resolution, expressed disappointment regarding the current proposed budget, and suggested the money instead go to community resources for the public and the un-housed community.

Larry Suggars spoke regarding "line workers" from the City Sanitation and Streets Departments; helpful City employees who made the city better, thanked Council Member Puy for raising the speed limit on his street to 30 miles per hour, and questioned why the cost was so high for keeping chickens, noting a senior discount should be in place.

Kristina Robb spoke regarding joining parents and students of East High School in a walk to support a new Glendale neighborhood high school, and asked if her group could get in touch with the Miller Ford Raceway to provide sanctioned racing for the kids.

Council Member Puy took a moment of personal privilege to clarify that there was a way
