AGENCY DIRECTIVE REVISED 3/19/25

To: Permittees, Licensees and the Public
From: Wyoming Gaming Commission (WGC)
Date: March 19, 2025
Subject: 2025 Live Race Season Work Requirements – Weber Downs

To Whom It May Concern:

During the 2024 live race concerns were raised regarding the acceptance of “official works” from Weber Downs in Ogden, Utah. The Commission’s Stewards made the determination not to accept works from Weber Downs out of an abundance of caution and for safety reasons.

After further review “official works” will be accepted if the Utah Racing Commission and the Utah Quarter Horse Racing Association abides to the following terms:

- Weber Downs must have an individual licensed as the official clocker and one licensed as the official starter by their Commission. (These can’t be the same person)
- Weber Downs must notify the Wyoming Gaming Commission on who has access to enter the works into the Equibase System. A list of all approved works must be submitted to the WGC and input into Equibase the day the workout is conducted.
- Horses must be properly identified by lip tattoo or digital tattoo before the daily workout.
- A licensed 2025 Weber Downs Steward must be present during workouts and sign off on the daily work list that is supplied to the WGC.

NOTE: Two-Year-Olds and Non-Starters must have two official published works (one must be a gate work as well as one of the works must be within 45 days). The Wyoming rule states ALL two year olds and older non-starters must be approved by the licensed Wyoming starter before they are permitted to start at a live meet.

In consultation with the Presiding Steward, this practice will continue during the 2025 race season, The Wyoming Gaming Commission stewards will also accept carded schooling races from Weber Downs.
