6:00 BRIEFING SESSION

Chair Meredith Harker conducted the briefing session, which convened at 6:00 p.m. A roll call was conducted wherein all council members were present except Council Member Burgess.

1. Review Agenda

The agenda for the regular city council meeting was reviewed.

Council Member Barbieri, who also served on the Wasatch Front Waste and Recycling Board, explained that she had copies of the Seasonal Container Reservation Program (SCRIP) Community News for each of the council members. It contained the date that the reservations were open in Taylorsville. She also reminded everyone that residents who were wait-listed last year were now considered 'early birds' and would be able to sign up early.

Council Member Cochran mentioned that because he would be traveling when Wayne Harper's retirement party took place, he wished to have a few moments to acknowledge him towards the end of the meeting.

The council members then took a moment to express their appreciation to Kris Heineman who had served as the City Council/Youth Council Coordinator and who was retiring at the end of the following week.

Mayor Overson asked the council if they had any questions regarding the press release that had recently been issued about Taylorsville Dayzz preparations. There were none.

2. Adjourn

Chair Harker declared the briefing session adjourned at 6:08 p.m.

2
3 1. WELCOME, INTRODUCTION AND PRELIMINARY MATTERS

4
5 Chair Harker called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m. and welcomed those in attendance. A roll
6 call was conducted wherein all council members were present except Council Member Burgess.
7 He arrived later in the meeting.

8
9 1.1 Opening Ceremonies – Pledge/Reverence – *Council Member Harker

10
11 Chair Harker lead the Pledge of Allegiance before turning the time over to City Council/Youth
12 Council Coordinator Kris Heineman. Ms. Heineman shared a list of things she had learned after 13 working with Taylorsville leaders:

- 14 ○ Sometimes there is no ulterior motive;
15 ○ People serve because they care;
16 ○ A sense of humor can see you through many hard things;
17 ○ There are people who listen;
18 ○ Saying ‘thank you’ comes naturally;
19 ○ Some leaders lead by doing, not by telling;
20 ○ “Team” has a whole new meaning in Taylorsville

21
22 She then offered a prayer.

23
24 1.2 Mayor’s Report

Mayor Kristie Overson presented her report which included the following highlights:

- 27
28 ● She expressed condolences to West Valley City regarding the recent tragedy at their city
29 festival. She then announced enhanced safety protocols for Taylorsville Dayzz, including
30 a plan to close adult rides at 8 p.m. on Friday and Saturday nights to allow extra time for 31 attendees to disperse. She thanked the rest of city administration, Chief Cottam, and Jim 32 Dunnigan for their efforts in making these recent enhancements.
- 33 ● The mayor highlighted recent Arts Council activities, including a children's theater
34 production and Taylorsville's Got Talent.
- 35 ● A Tourism, Recreation, Culture & Convention (TRCC) funding application for phase 2 of 36 Taylorsville Park was being prepared for submittal to Salt Lake County.
- 37 ● The mayor reported on attending West Jordan's City Council meeting where that body 38 approved the interlocal agreement for justice court services which would be considered by 39 Taylorsville’s City Council later in the evening.

- She discussed Chamber West events, including a luncheon hosted by Summit Vista and a sold-out golf tournament.
- The mayor mentioned participating in Salt Lake County's summer reading program and reading to children at a splash/story time event.
- She announced the free summer lunch program which was available at three locations in Taylorsville: Valley Regional Park, Fremont Elementary and Vista Park (various hours).
- The mayor reported presenting an Elevate Scholarship Award from Mountain America Credit Union to a Taylorsville High graduate.
- She discussed the upcoming fireworks season and directed residents to check the Unified Fire Authority website for areas where it was permissible to set them off. (She noted there had been no change in Taylorsville from what was allowed the previous year)
- Mayor Overson thanked Captain Tony Barker of Unified Fire, TVPD, and so many others for their tireless efforts in preparing for Taylorsville Dayzz.
- Lastly, the mayor acknowledged that this was the last City Council meeting for Wayne Harper and Kris Heineman who were both retiring. She thanked them for their many years of service.

5. PLANNING MATTERS

5.1 General Plan Discussion (Chapters 5-9) – Wayne Harper & Jim Spung

 Community and Economic Development Director Wayne Harper expressed his appreciation to the planning staff for the hard work they had put towards creating this document before turning the time over to Senior Planner Jim Spung.

Mr. Spung began his presentation by showing the future land use map and explaining how it would help guide decision-making for development within Taylorsville.

Chapter 5 was about economic prosperity and resilience. It highlighted Taylorsville's strong economic growth and identified areas for improvement. Mr. Spung mentioned that the plan was designed to be flexible, considering how much the job market might change in the future.

For chapter 6 which focused on parks and recreation, Jim was proud to share how much park space Taylorsville had added since incorporating in 1996. He mentioned plans for more neighborhood parks and expanding the trail system.

Chapter 7 addressed neighborhoods, emphasizing their importance to the community. Mr. Spung discussed the importance of preserving existing neighborhoods while allowing for specific types of housing within certain areas.

Chapter 8, which had previously been approved by the City Council, covered moderate income housing. Mr. Spung explained that staff were working on implementing plans for addressing exterior accessory dwelling units and parking requirements.

Lastly, chapter 9 focused on environmental stewardship. Mr. Spung explained that it included a water element, as required by state law, and covered topics like emergency management, urban forests, and waste management.

Councilmember Harker asked if the city's code matched the plan's water-wise recommendations. Mr. Spung explained that staff had made some changes but could do more, especially in educating the public about water conservation.
