5. CDRA Executive Director Report

Monte Bona reviewed the status of the Paul Brunn Grant, noting that a new application has been submitted for $74,100. The proposed use of these funds includes renovating one unit in the Triangle Apartments and completing work on the east side of the Wasatch Block Building. However, the funds are currently frozen, and it remains uncertain whether the grant will be awarded. Although the application is strong, Monte expressed concern about the ongoing freeze and its impact on the project's potential.

He also provided an update on previously approved CR grant allocations, which remain frozen despite earlier approval. These include $13,000 for the City Hall carpet replacement, $26,000 for the Equestrian Center, $30,000 for the Veterans Memorial, $24,810 for Main Street improvements, $39,500 for the bike path, and $27,000 for park enhancements, totaling $160,310.

Regarding the trail project to Spring City, Monte reported that funding is in place and Sunrise Engineering is expected to begin work within the next few weeks. It is still being determined where the new trail will connect with the existing trail that loops around the park.

There was discussion regarding the recent High School Rodeo held at the Contoy Arena. The event was well attended and appeared to run smoothly. Council members acknowledged the efforts of those involved in organizing and supporting the event.
