- Principal Mecham lauded Michelle's 36 years of exemplary service to the school district. Michelle's impact extended beyond her role, creating a "custodial tree" of trained professionals. Consistent, passionate, and dependable work ethic were highlighted as key characteristics. Michelle was praised for her dedication, leading by example and being a supportive boss and friend. Her work significantly impacted the condition and reputation of Red Cliffs Elementary. Many visitors mistook the building's excellent condition for new construction. Michelle's retirement was described as bittersweet, with expressions of gratitude and congratulations on her successful career.

- Dr. Hughes lauded Principal Mary Wohlforth's 33 years of service to the Juab School District, highlighting her dedication and impact on students and staff. He shared numerous testimonials from colleagues and former students, describing Principal Wohlforth as: Compassionate and caring: She consistently prioritized the well-being of others, exemplified by acts of service like providing meals and cleaning for staff. Inspirational leader: She fostered a positive and supportive school environment, promoting literacy and encouraging professional growth among teachers. Dedicated and hardworking: She consistently went above and beyond, tackling challenges with a positive attitude and unwavering commitment. Exceptional listener and mentor: She provided unwavering support and guidance to both students and staff, serving as a role model and mentor. Dr. Hughes emphasized Principal Wohlforth's exceptional leadership, noting her ability to support, challenge, and inspire those around her. He expressed gratitude for her sacrifices and the positive impact she made on thousands of students and families.
