

MINUTES
WFRC || Active Transportation Committee
August 12, 2025

WFRC Active Transportation Committee Meeting was held at WFRC Offices, 41 N Rio Grande Street, Salt Lake City and via Zoom.

1. Introductions and consent agenda [00:00:10]

Mayor Troy Walker, Chair of the Active Transportation Committee (ATC) and Mayor of Draper City, welcomed members and guests to the meeting. A roll call was conducted to record all attendees. ACTION [00:03:21]:

Mayor Walker requested a motion to approve the minutes from the June 11, 2025, meeting. Mayor Ken Phippen of Farr West City made the motion, which was seconded by Mayor Joy Petro of Layton City. With no further discussion, the motion passed unanimously.

2. Public comment [00:03:52]

Ellen Birrell, Cottonwood Heights Councilmember, emphasized the importance of supporting and caring for youth, noting that they represent the future.

Elliott Mott, Volunteer Organizer, advocated for the extension of the bike path along West Davis Highway and highlighted the need for additional signage on the Jordan River Trailhead at 3900 South in Millcreek.

3. Project Opening: Millcreek/Salt Lake County Trailhead at Jordan River [00:07:37]

Millcreek City Councilmember Suzanne Harrison provided a brief overview of the new park and trailhead at the Jordan River near 3900 South. She emphasized the significance of the new facility and expressed gratitude to the stakeholders involved in the project.

4. Legislation Follow-up: Car Parking in Bike Lanes & HB290 [00:11:21]

Cameron Carter with Bike Utah provided an overview of HB290, a bill passed during the 2025 Legislative Session that authorizes cities to issue citations for obstructions in bicycle lanes. He outlined key provisions and nuances of the bill, followed by a discussion among ATC members about related experiences in their respective areas.

5. Report: West Jordan Traffic Calming [00:42:50]

Krista Riester, West Jordan City Engineer, and Kirby Snideman with Avenue Consultants gave a presentation on recent traffic calming efforts in West Jordan aimed at reducing congestion and accidents. They outlined various traffic calming strategies and discussed the relationship between their cost and overall effectiveness.

6. Update: 2027 Regional Transportation Plan [01:02:31]

Hugh Van Wagenen, Active Transportation Planner with WFRC, provided an overview of the 2027 Regional Transportation Plan, including the current status, upcoming steps in the process, and an invitation to participate in the 2025 Fall Workshops.

7. Heads up: WFRC Funding Programs [01:07:50]

Matt Ryan, Community Planner with WFRC, shared information about upcoming WFRC funding opportunities, including key deadlines, next steps, and available resources for additional details.

8. Other Business and Adjournment [01:16:37]

Hugh Van Wagenen announced that WFRC/UDOT/UTA/MAG is developing an Active Transportation Implementation Academy, designed to support cities that are just beginning to implement active transportation initiatives. The program is expected to launch in the fall and run through late winter or early spring.

Mayor Troy Walker announced that the next Active Transportation Committee (ATC) meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 14, 2025.

[01:18:29] A motion to adjourn was made by Mayor Ken Phippen and seconded by Ogden City Councilmember Dave Graff. The meeting was adjourned at 10:50 AM.
