Applications for the CDBG, ESG, HOME, HOPWA, and Federal Grant Programs are now being accepted for Fiscal Year 2026-2027

The City's annual allocation from HUD is an opportunity to provide direct services and assistance to Salt Lake City's residents and communities who are vulnerable, low- to moderate-income, and historically underserved populations and/or neighborhoods.

Applications are currently being accepted for the following annual U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) programs:

Community Development Block Grant (CDBG)

The CDBG program's primary objective is to promote the development of viable urban communities by providing affordable housing, suitable living environments, and economic opportunities for persons of low- to moderate-income (LMI).

Emergency Solutions Grant (ESG)

The ESG program's primary objective is to assist individuals and families regain housing stability after experiencing a housing or homelessness crisis.

HOME Investment Partnership Program (HOME)

The HOME program's primary objective is to create affordable housing opportunities for low-income households.

Housing Opportunities for Persons With HIV/AIDS (HOPWA)

The HOPWA program's primary objective is to provide housing assistance and related supportive services to persons living with HIV/AIDS and their families.

Interested entities are invited to submit applications for activities that support local and national program requirements and align with the 2025-2029 Consolidated Plan. The 2025-2029 Consolidated Plan and an application resource guide can be found online at <https://www.slc.gov/housingstability/community-development-grants/>

An optional training session will be held on August 28, 2025, at 10 a.m. via Zoom. Applications must be submitted by 4:59 p.m. on Friday, September 19, 2025. Late applications will not be accepted.
